FRIDAY, JULY 4, 1913

It appears that President Wilson was well informed when he declared a powerful lobby existed.

There is much reason for all of us to be extremely happy. The income tax will not become effective until the first of next March.

The vote in the local option election last Saturday showed that Niles and Girard are some wet. But they appear to be about the only moist places in Trumbull county.

The new postal cards are to bear the portrait of Thomas Jefferson instead of that of William McKinley. Friends of the latter are protesting but it is likely after Postmaster General Burleson has made up his mind to make the change it will be done.

That clerk in the pension bureau at Washington who kisses a ten-year-old girl clerk good-bye will probably not repeat the performance. His chief suspended him for three months without pay and that means a loss of $450, a high price for a kiss as kisses go.

Former Congressman James Kennedy has let it be known that he will be a candidate for the republican nomination for congress in the 19th district composed of the counties of Ashtabula, Trumbull and Mahoning. But he will not have easy sailing. He will have at least two opponents in his own county and one or two in the other counties.

OHLTOWN

July 2—Ruth and Ethel Bott of Youngstown are spending a week here with their little friends.

Children's Day exercise were held Sunday morning in the M. E. Church. David Miles and family of Niles spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Evans.

On Thursday, June 26, occurred the death of Mrs. Anne Williams, widow of Evan Williams, at her home on Pleasant Hill, from the effects of a stroke. Mrs. Williams was born Sept. 18, 1848, at Rhymer, South Wales.

She came to this country when a young woman and had lived in this community since. She was a faithful member of the Welsh Congregational church since she was twelve years of age. Mrs. Williams was dearly beloved by numerous friends who will be sorry to learn of her demise. Deceased is survived by ten children. They are: Mrs. Mary Davidson, Mrs. Annie Baines and John of Pleasant Hill, David, Evor and Mrs. Margaret Medland of Mineral Ridge, Mrs. Elizabeth Swogger and Lottie Williams of Cleveland, Henry of Detroit and Will of Dillonvale.

Funeral services were conducted from the home Sunday at 2 p. m. Rev. Henry of the Disciple church at Mineral Ridge and Rev. Roberts of the Welsh Congregational church at Youngstown officiated. The pallbearers were three sons and three sons-in-law of the deceased. Interment was made in Four Mile Run cemetery.

Now Sole Owner.

M. J. Samuels has purchased his brother's interest in the big jewelry store of Samuels Brothers, 124 West Federal Street, Youngstown, and will not only continue the business but enlarge it. Mr. Samuels located in Youngstown twenty years ago and by square, upright dealing established a business that is regarded one of the most substantial in the city. His host of friends throughout the county wish him continued success.

Fellow Feeling.

Willie had often visited his father's office in town and had grown quite fond of Miss Drew, his father's secretary. One morning when his father was starting for town he heard Willie's voice shouting: "Father, wait a minute!" Daddy waited until Willie came in. "Well, son, what is it?" he asked. "I want to give you a kiss for Miss Drew," replied Willie.

So Comforting.

Hub—"The doctor says if I keep working at this pace after money, I shall be a wreck at forty-five." Wife—"Never mind, dear. By that time we shall be able to afford it."

Give Him Time.

Benton—"Have you tried all the remedies that your friends have recommended for your rheumatism?" Tulsar—"Great Scott, no! I haven't had the pecky disease more than three years."—Life.

YOUNGSTOWN

More than a million dollars in dividends were distributed Monday by financial and manufacturing establishments in this city. It is estimated that of this immense sum people living in this city will receive fully $500,000.

Mario Perola, aged five, was run down by an automobile last Saturday and died soon after being taken to the hospital. The driver of the machine was not to blame for the accident.

The relief association of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. will hold a picnic Saturday at Cedar Point. The budget commission has fixed $533,000 for the needs of the city in 1914.

A considerable fund has been raised to give poor children of the city a chance to enjoy the fresh air camp. The law is now effective making it necessary for dealers to sell many commodities by weight instead of measure.

James Allen, manager of the Deibel store, was found guilty Monday in police court of selling oleomargarine for butter and was fined $50 and costs.

Joe Weiss is among the leaders in opposing the adoption of the new charter and this is given as a reason by some men why it will carry. But Joe is some fighter, anyhow.

Sam Wilkoff has purchased of Dr. R. D. Gibson 4.33 acres of land on the south side of Hazel street for which he paid $30,000. A new iron plant will probably be built on part of the land.

Helen Yarab, aged 15, who has been a bad actor, will be sent to the Delaware school in the hope that she will profit by the experience.

Mercury reached 101 in the shade in this city on Tuesday.

Employees of the Wm. Tod Co. will be given an outing by the company Saturday at Southern park.

During June 132 marriage licenses were issued in this county.

John McBride, who tried to shoot Detective Kane, and Jake Hoffman, guilty of bigamy, have been taken to the pen.

J. F. Snedeker's estate was given a verdict against the Stark Electric Co. for $7,500. At the first trial of the case the verdict was for $8,500.

The charter election in this city will be held Tuesday, July 23.

It is held that the bids for constructing the dam for the Milton township reservoir are irregular and that bids must again be submitted for the work.

The body of an unknown man was fished out of the river Wednesday afternoon.

GREENFORD

July 3—Rev. Lloyd M. Daubenspeck, pastor of the Hempfield charge, near Greensburg, Pa., died suddenly May 28. He retired Wednesday evening apparently in good health, but was found dead in the morning, having passed away some time during the night. His body was taken to North Washington, Pa., the home of his father. The deceased was educated at Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, Pa., having received his preparatory training at Slippery Rock Normal and Grove City college. He served the Shanksville pastorate in Somerset county, Pa., six years, in the pastorate in Greensford 16 months and accepted a call to Hempfield charge last September. He was a faithful and successful minister of the word. His wife, two sons, one daughter, one sister and three half brothers survive. He was a soldier in the Spanish-American war.

The Lady Macabees of Greensford held their regular session Wednesday evening at the following members: Mrs. Mildred McGinnis, Mrs. Eva Welkart, Mrs. Janet Toot, Mrs. Mary Hively, Mrs. Maggie Hively. Nearly all the members were present and an interesting session was held.

There will be preaching in the Lutheran church Sunday morning and evening.

The dry weather was broken Tuesday by a splendid rain.

There will be nothing special going on in Greensford on the Fourth.

The postoffice will be closed from 10 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. on the 4th.

Mrs. Luther Musselman and daughter Goldie are visiting friends in Youngstown a few days this week.

Mrs. Emily Shingfield of Canfield is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Nellie Bush.

Mrs. John Rhodes returned home Wednesday after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Crist, of Damascus.

Miss Pearl Zimmerman and Vada Cooke were in Salem Saturday evening.

Will Bush and family of Canfield visited Robert Bush and wife Sunday.

Fred Dively and family spent Sunday with Henry Lang and family.

L. B. Curtis of Canfield was in town Monday.

Misses Mary Halfey and Harriet Calvin were in Leetonia Saturday.

Miss Hattie Hoffman is spending a few days in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Zimmerman visited their sons south of Columbiana last Sunday.

Mahoning County Saloons.

According to the Dow tax figures compiled by Mrs. Jennie Thompson of the county auditor's office, Mahoning county, now has a total of 402 saloons.

Youngstown has 330 threat quenching emporiums. The remainder are divided as follows: East Youngstown, 42; Lowellville, 22; Washingtonville, 2; Springfield, 6.

The Dow tax receipts for the first half of the year amounted to $198,675.13. The city's share is $81,325.52. Other funds received the following portions: East Youngstown, $10,246.49; Lowellville, $5,299.41; Washingtonville, $4,871.14; Springfield, $1,470; to the state, $59,597.14; to the poor fund, $39,731.43.

When the Greenlund liquor license law becomes operative, Mahoning county will lose many saloons. Youngstown alone will have only 160 saloons; East Youngstown 10; Lowellville 2; Washingtonville and Springfield one apiece.

This will be Youngstown's last big slice of the liquor tax. The reduction in the number of saloons will of course decrease the saloon tax revenue. Each saloonkeeper receiving a license will have to pay $100 per in addition to the regular $1,000. The $100 must be turned over to the state and will be used to pay the expenses of the liquor licensing board in each county.

The gift of gab demonstrates that many a man makes a speech that doesn't make him.

Mr. Whitacre for the People, Not for Autos.

When they go ahead of our shrewd congressman, John J. Whitacre, they have to go some. They cannot under the guise of good roads pull anything over his eyes. The proposition to make a great highway from ocean to ocean looked good at first glance. People want good roads, but when it is shown that the road would benefit only a few, especially in the great trackless western states, and that it was wanted by the automobile associations more than the farmers Mr. Whitacre kicked the proposition over his eyes.
